

Welcome Home

Thank you so much for adopting your new cat or kitten from SAFE Haven. Whether a first time cat owner or a life-long lover of cats, everybody has questions once in a while. We hope you find the below websites and information helpful in your journey with your new pet.

- RESOURCES:

www.catsinternational.org Cats International

Topics Covered Include the Following:

Getting a Cat	Natural Cat Behavior
Overcoming Stress	Fun & Useful Info
House Soiling	Scratching & Declawing
Aggression Towards People	Misc Behavior Problems
Aggression Towards Other Cats

<https://indoorpet.osu.edu/cats> Ohio State University Indoor Pet Initiative

Topics Covered Include the Following:

Basic Needs	Problem Solving
A Good Start	Keeping Indoor Cats Healthy
Indoor Cat Needs	Nutrition Support
Feline Life Stressors

- SUGGESTED READING:

- “Think like a Cat” by Pam Johnson-Bennett

- “Total Cat Mojo” by Jackson Galaxy

The Jackson Galaxy Project @ jacksongallaxy.com

Animal Emergency Hospitals in the Triangle

- Raleigh

- 1) Veterinary Specialty Hospital, 4640 Paragon Park Road; (919) 861-0109; open 24/7
- 2) Quail Corners Animal Hospital, 1613 E Millbrook Rd; (919) 706-0488; open 24/7
- 3) Animal Emergency Hospital & Urgent Care, 409 Vick Ave; (919) 781-5145; 24/7
- 4) Small Animal Emergency Service, NCSU Vet School, 1052 William Moore Drive; (919) 513-6911; 24/7

- Cary

- 1) Animal Emergency Clinic of Cary, 6910 Carpenter Fire Station; (919) 462-8989; 24/7
- 2) Veterinary Specialty Hospital, 6405-100 Tryon Rd; (919) 233-4911; open 24/7

- Durham

- 1) Triangle Veterinary Referral Hospital, 608 Morreene Rd; (919) 489-0615; open 24/7
- 2) Veterinary Specialty Hospital, 7015 NC Highway, (919) 600-6600; 24/7

-Holly Springs

- 1) Triangle Veterinary Referral Hospital, 2120 Werrington Dr., Suite 201, (919) 973-5620, 24/7